

Dear Prayer Partner,

November 2016

Thank you once again for your faithful and continuous support. We are truly thankful for God's generous provision through you. The year is racing to its end and our students are preparing for their exams which start on 4 November. We are also busy with our planning and budgeting as well as processing student applications for 2017. Please join us as we "Look to the Lord and His strength; seek His face always". 1 Chronicles 16:11.

With every blessing,
Ilse Lorenzen, Development Coordinator

Sunday – Faculty and Staff

Give thanks for:

- The stability of the College staffing this year, for the working relationships that have been established and the diligence of each team member to enable the College programme and business to run well
- The many staff of the College across the past years that have given sacrificially to the work of the College, preparing people for effective Christian service

Pray for:

- Arrangements to run smoothly for Dan and Emily Cole and family's final months in the USA and for doors to open for their arrival in Semester 2, 2017
- Our staff, that they will continue to support and encourage each other, and focus on the important rather than the urgent so that the Gospel will flourish
- Don West, Allan Chapple, Clare Deeves, Marty Foord, David Kummerow, Tim Thorburn Rolf van Wollingen and Jon Rumble as they finalise their marking for the semester
- Marty Foord and David Kummerow as they are teaching our current Trinity@Night courses

Monday – 2017

Give thanks for:

- Our 2017 student applicants

Pray for:

- Our Faculty members and visiting lecturers in their preparations for their teaching programmes for 2017
- Preparations and collaboration for the Don Carson week in August 2017; that cooperation, prayerful planning and diligent preparation will be evident in all aspects of the week to benefit His Kingdom
- The Registrar's Department and the Faculty engaging with prospective students for 2017 during the interview process; for wisdom, openness and understanding together with God's love to be evident in all dealings

Tuesday – Supporters

Give thanks for:

- The invaluable work of the Trinity Volunteers who play a vital role in the College running smoothly
- The generous and faithful donations from supporters
- Generous provisions for the library and its expansive use by students, pastors and researchers

Pray for:

- Good, long-lasting relationships with all our donors, supporters and churches
- The College and its library to continue to serve as a hub where relationships will be built to advance God's Kingdom
- Financial provision for 2017

november prayer notes continued ...

Wednesday – Students and Graduates

Give thanks for:

- The wonderful group of students who have given so much of themselves this year to be prepared for partnering with God in spreading His Good News to a needy world
- Graduates maintaining contact with the College even with their busy schedules, thereby fostering a healthy mutually beneficial community

Pray for:

- Our Graduates who are seeking ministry positions for 2017
- Our Graduates will rely upon God through prayer and that God's Word will be central in their lives and ministries
- Students and grads involved in evangelism both in Western Australia and elsewhere, that they will prepare well and depend upon God's grace. Pray that the hearts of those who hear the good news will be softened and that God's Spirit will bring them to know Jesus as Saviour and Lord

Thursday – Students

Give thanks for:

- The support students receive through their families and churches as they study and prepare for Christian service

Pray for:

- Students during their final weeks of study leading up to their exams beginning on Friday, 4th November
- Students in their final semester who are graduating at the end of the year and for their plans and employment in ministry

Friday – Trinity Women

Give thanks for:

- Updates received from past students shared at the recent Trinity Women's Breakfast and the encouragement all received to keep persevering in the Gospel
- The fine work of the Trinity Women and Trinity Women Enrichment Day teams

Pray for:

- Preparations for the first Trinity Women Coffee and Dessert Night for 2017
- Trinity Women to serve the current and alumni College community well to promote long-lasting friendships and encourage them in ministering Jesus' love to others
- Preparations for Trinity Women Enrichment Day 2017

Saturday – General

Give thanks for:

- The ministry of encouragement helping each of us persevere in the field in which we serve
- Our faithful, generous donors whose support helps to cover the necessary costs behind the students' training for Word ministry

Pray for:

- The AFES National Training Event Conference to be held in Canberra from 3rd to 7th December and Clare Deeves and the students planning to attend
- Our College staff and students to live their lives in a manner worthy of the Gospel of Christ
- The health and safety of all our students, staff, alumni and supporters, as well as David Seccombe's ongoing recovery from surgery
- Wisdom for the preparation of the budget, and good stewardship of resources, for 2017 and beyond
