

Prayer Notes

Trinity Theological College

September 2018

Dear Prayer Partner

When we consider the turmoil of our government, the lack of loyalty and support for fellow politicians and the seeming unconcern for the affairs of our country, it is good to remember; '... the kingdom is the LORD'S and He rules over the nations.'
Psalm 22:28

Please join us in prayer; that he will raise up more godly men and women seeking to be trained to know and serve him in our hurting world.

Sunday – Students

Praise God for: the enthusiasm and commitment of the students towards their studies and growth in the Lord

Pray for: God to draw the students into an ever closer relationship with him that they might discern his will for their life and ministry at the conclusion of their studies

- Many to attend the Information Night on 13 September and begin the enrolment process to commence studies at the beginning of 2019
- The Registrar's Department refining their processes to meet the criteria of the governing bodies

Monday – Graduates

Praise God for: our graduates who are remaining firm and true in their Word ministries in their field of service

Pray for: our graduates who are undergoing further training in preparation for overseas ministry work; that they will be quickly able to learn the new language and understand the culture into which they will be immersed, being able to use it to draw them to Jesus

- Graduates seeking employment; that they will find the place where God will best use them and their skills
- Graduates ministering in hostile communities; that they will be encouraged with fruit from their labours

Tuesday – Trinity Women and Library

Praise God for: the Trinity Women events throughout the year encouraging students and their spouses with friendship and practical help with study and ministry

- The diverse range of books and resources in our Library
- Pray for: the Trinity Women committee with their preparations for the Family Picnic; for additional help, good attendance and fine weather
- The volunteers who provide a vital service in the Library; for good health and for additional people to volunteer their services and learn the skills necessary

Wednesday – Faculty and Staff

Praise God for: a cohesive staff working together for the good of the College and the furtherance of Gospel ministry training

- Thom Bull's PhD submission being accepted. Pray that he'll have wisdom, energy and good time management for his research and teaching preparation

Pray for: the Faculty as they adjust to the new dynamics with change of staff and with David Kummerow on sabbatical

- Clare Deeves preaching at Geraldton Women's Conference on 22 September
- The appointment of a new Development Coordinator who will bring the required skills to the position and fill it well
- Wisdom and discernment for the selection panel in the selection process
- For the Development Office to run smoothly in the interim

Thursday – General

Praise God for: the many people who have caught the vision of a Gospel ministry training college in Perth and have supported Trinity throughout the 21 years

- The churches that faithfully support the College in prayer, financially and encouraging study at Trinity
- Pray for: many more churches to partner with us; for more opportunities to reach more people to be better equipped for Word ministry
- Pastors and leaders to be training and equipping men and women in their churches and encouraging them to train at Trinity for Word ministry

Friday – Finances and Relationships

Praise God for: his faithfulness through our prayerful and financial partners throughout the past 21 years

Pray for: God to provide direction for securing good tenants for our ground and first floors

- Our 21st celebrations; that more people would be encouraged to support Trinity and share in growing God's kingdom

Saturday – Certificate in Christian Studies

Praise God for: all involved in providing our Certificate course over more than 21 years

- For the coordinators, teachers & churches who have partnered with us and for the over 4000 who have attended classes
- Pray for: the teaching people access through Trinity@Night and Trinity in Town that it would bring change in the people's lives and build stronger church communities
- Trinity in Town Busselton on 8 September, The Big Picture: Seeing the Bible as a Whole and for Dan Cole lecturing; that he will have good health and travelling mercies
