

Trinity Theological College Prayer Notes

September 2020

Dear Prayer Partner

We are so thankful for, and praise God for, the privilege of being able to hold our Annual Lecture both in person and via Zoom. Praise God for a much bigger than expected registration, too. What an inspiring lecture Peter Orr brought to us! Our thoughts and prayers are with our brothers and sisters in the eastern states who are unable to enjoy the same freedoms we are her in WA. As 1 Corinthians 12:26a says, 'If one part suffers, every part suffers with it'. We continue to pray for our country's leaders, and indeed all world leaders, as they navigate a path through COVID-19.

Let us lift up our College, students, graduates and supporters in prayer. Your continued support is so encouraging; thank you.

My name is Jesse Dixon and I am currently studying for my MDiv. My wife Diana and I have two children, we have been at Subiaco Church for 8 years, and I work as a Senior Physiotherapist in the area of Neurological Research. I chose to study at Trinity upon the recommendation of my pastor Ben Johnston and discussions with my parents, primarily because of its strong academic reputation and gospel-centred theology. The quality of the teaching, approachability of the staff, and the encouragement from my lecturers has been terrific.

I am planning to enter into a pastoral ministry position in Perth or country WA, wherever the Lord leads us. Prayer would be great! For perseverance in completing my studies during this busy season of our lives, and for clarity as we seek the Lord's will for our family moving forward.

MAJOR PRAYER POINTS

Info Night on 15 Oct; that many will register and decide to commence their studies with Trinity
God to supply finances to meet the 2020 budget through our supporters
Planning for the 2021 Trinity@Night courses

Sunday - Students

Praise God for: the commitment and enthusiasm of our students towards their studies and their growth in the Lord

Pray for: God to draw our students into an ever closer relationship with him that they might discern his will for their life and ministry at the conclusion of their studies

- Many to attend Info Night on 15 October and Open Lecture on 20 October and begin the enrolment process for 2021

Monday – Graduates

Praise God for: the faithfulness to their calling of our graduates working in isolated and unappreciated ministries

Pray for: our graduates undergoing further preparation for overseas gospel work; that they will learn the language and culture well to effectively minister

- Graduates seeking employment; that they will find the place where God will best use them and their skills

Tuesday – Faculty and Staff

Praise God for: a cohesive staff working together for the furtherance of gospel ministry training through Trinity

Pray for: Registrar's Department preparing for Info Night and processing the 2021 enrolment applications that have started coming in

- Wisdom for the Development Department promoting Trinity to prospective students and supporters

Wednesday – Certificate in Christian Studies

Praise God for: the coordinators, teachers and churches partnering with Trinity to equip Christians in the community

Pray for: the courses people access through Trinity@Night and Trinity in Town; that they will bring change in their lives and build stronger church communities

- David Mitchell and Duane Olivier teaching T@N Term 3

Thursday – Finances and Leadership

Praise God for: the wise financial leadership of the College

Pray for: churches to see the value of partnering with Trinity financially; that more men and women might be equipped for gospel ministry

Friday – Trinity Women, volunteers and Library

Praise God for: volunteers in all areas of the College

Pray for: a good attendance at, and fine weather for the Trinity Picnic on 19 September

- Good health for our mailout volunteers and those who volunteer in the library

Saturday – Australia

Praise God for: the religious freedom we have in Australia

Pray for: wisdom for the Federal and State Governments negotiating the way through the COVID-19 pandemic

- Christians; that they will be a faithful witness and share the gospel in this time of uncertainty
