

TRINITY THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

PRAYER NOTES

March 2021

Dear Prayer Partner

It was truly wonderful to start the academic year with the excited buzz of 113 new and returning students. How wonderful that there are men and women seeking to be better equipped to serve the Lord! Orientation and Language Intensive week was somewhat disrupted due to the lockdown, however our innovative and flexible faculty were able to use the Zoom skills acquired last year to ensure most of the material was covered. How blessed are we, his people, to draw on strength outside of ourselves. 'The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and I am helped.' Psalm 28:7. We are pleased you are partnering with us this year; we truly value your faithful prayer support.

My name is Adrienne Wright and I am married to Stephen and we have 4 sons. We attend Westminster Presbyterian Church Bull Creek where I am involved in women's ministry. Being eager to learn about the Bible for myself, I am currently studying for my Graduate Diploma of Divinity through Trinity following recommendations from others in my church who have gone before me. My aim is to be better equipped in my understanding of the Bible and who God is to enable me to better minister to women and evangelise them.

Please pray that I will grow in my understanding of, and be confident sharing, who God is and of his great love for me and those who are lost. Pray too that more opportunities will open up for me to minister God's word to women who have suffered trauma.
