

TRINITY THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

PRAYER NOTES

September 2021

Dear Prayer Partner

We were inspired by Dr David Robertson's recent lecture on 'Persuasive Evangelism by The Persuasive Church' and thank God for him and the work he does for the Kingdom. May many come to know Christ and the hope that is found in him through strategies that fit the needs of our culture. Please continue in your prayerful support of Trinity and the work that is being done to equip men and women for gospel ministry. Pray that each one will remain faithful to the calling God has placed on their lives; 'it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy' 1 Corinthians 4:2 ESV.

My name is Elizabeth Page and I am married to Joshua. I grew up in a Christian family, where the gospel was lovingly and diligently proclaimed and where I was always shown the importance of reading my Bible and going to church for growing and remaining in Christ. Gradually throughout my life, I have come to understand the gospel more and grown in my relationship with God and I have chosen to study at Trinity to grow in my knowledge of the Bible and to be equipped to share the gospel. Short-term, I plan to study post-graduate medicine with the view to cross-cultural mission.

Please pray that Joshua and I will grow together in Christ and will gain clarity on what God has in store for our future. Please also pray for me as I go through the final stages of applying for medicine; that I would gain an interview in September and that I will perform well.

MAJOR PRAYER POINTS

Preparations for and good attendance at Open Week October 12-14

For good health for our students to enable them to absorb the material they are being taught

Lecturers diligently seeking to prepare students well for gospel ministry

Sunday - Students

Praise God for: our students; for their commitment to understanding the Scriptures and learning how to convey this life-changing message to others

Pray for: students to take the opportunity to form lasting friendships and fellowship at the Spring Picnic on Sept 18

- Open Week 12-14 October; that the new format will allow additional prospective students to sample what Trinity has to offer and enrol for 2022 study

Monday – Faculty and Staff

Praise God for: the appointment of Elizabeth Manasseh as the new Senior Librarian

- the publication of Dan Cole's new book 'Isaiah's Servant in Paul – The hermeneutics and Ethics of Paul's Use of Isaiah 49-54'

Pray for: for good health for faculty and staff

- Elizabeth; that she will quickly settle into the librarian role when she commences mid-September

Tuesday – Finances and Leadership

Praise God for: his faithful provision through our prayerful and financial partners throughout the history of the College

- wise financial management of the College

Pray for: churches to see the value of partnering with Trinity financially; that more men and women might be equipped for gospel ministry in Perth to serve locally as well as further afield

Wednesday – Trinity Women

Praise God for: the events organised by the Trinity Women Committee; for the friendships that grow through them

Pray for: the planning and preparation that the Committee put into upcoming TW events

- good weather for the TTC Spring Picnic and for students and their families to take advantage of the opportunity to fellowship together

Thursday - Graduates

Praise God for: our graduates maintaining contact with TTC

Pray for: our graduates working in places with COVID restrictions; that they will work creatively to be God's comfort

- graduates seeking employment

Friday – CCS

Praise God for: the large groups studying Trinity@Night this term

Pray for: the students choosing to write the T@N essays; that they will grasp the subject material well

Saturday – General

Praise God for: David Robertson's talk at the recent Annual lecturing giving practical ways for churches to evangelise

Pray for: Open Week; that the option to attend a variety of lectures will better showcase Trinity to those considering training for gospel ministry
