

TRINITY THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE PRAYER NOTES

June 2023

Hi, I'm Bek Hotchkin. I was privileged to be brought up to know Christ as my Saviour by my parents in Pinjarra, and have been encouraged by many faithful Christians along the way. I moved to Perth to study nursing and after working as a nurse for a few years, I became interested in being further trained in ministry. Now I am a ministry apprentice at St Matt's Shenton Park where my husband, Ben and I serve. I'm currently studying for my Graduate Diploma of Divinity at Trinity and am enjoying how relevant my theological studies are for practical ministry. Ben and I are thinking and praying about how we might best serve God with the time and gifts he has given us, but we are unsure what that might look like in the future. Please be praying that God will give us wisdom in making decisions together about what we may do next year once I have finished my ministry apprenticeship.

Please join with us in daily prayer; our major prayer points are in blue...

1	Praise God for the encouraging number of prospective students that attended Info Night and Open Lecture	16	Pray for David Mitchell preparing to teach Trinity@Night 'Dealing with Current Issues' commencing 3 Aug
2	Pray for students writing their exams this week; that they will be blessed with good health and clear minds	17	Praise God for the mid-year break and for rest and recreation for students and faculty
3	Praise God for churches actively focussed on future gospel workers with trainees and apprentices, and recommending study through Trinity	18	Pray for more senior pastors prioritising their role in partnering with Trinity to raise up the next generation of ministry workers
4	Pray for good health and effective time management for students completing assessments and exams	19	Praise God for the enthusiasm of the library staff to create a well-resourced, functional workspace
5	Praise God for a fruitful semester of teaching and building relationships with students	20	Pray for more people with a heart for and financial capacity to support ministry training through Trinity
6	Pray for many students to enrol before the 3 July closing date	21	Pray for more students and wives of students to attend and be encouraged by the Trinity Women events
7	Praise God for those students who will be completing their studies at the end of the semester and that they will continue to grow in their faith	22	Praise God for our graduates persevering and 'pressing on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus'
8	Pray for the interviews and appointment of the new Communications Manager	23	Pray for a bountiful response to the Mid-Year Appeal from churches and individuals
9	Praise God for the pastors and leaders who attended the recent Ministry Matters with Rob and Claire Smith	24	Praise God for Alexia Horton and the Trinity Women Committee working with female students
10	Pray for Trinity@Night students to be encouraged and challenged to complete the assignment	25	Pray for faculty speaking at different churches; that they will grow in partnership with Trinity
11	Praise God for approximately 450 people attending and being edified at the Annual Lecture with Rob Smith	26	Praise God for the faithful churches that regularly host Trinity@Night courses
12	Pray for the Registrar's Department finalising Semester 1 and preparing for Semester 2	27	Pray for the Executive of the College making decisions for the ongoing growth and work of the College
13	Praise God for Trinity@Night forming a bridge for many to Diploma and Degree studies	28	Praise God for our volunteers who serve at mailouts, in the library and on committees
14	Pray for Matt Harding teaching T@N 'The Framework: Seeing Christian Truth as a Whole' commencing 1 Aug	29	Pray for Dan Cole returning from sabbatical; that he will be reenergised for Semester 2 teaching
15	Praise God for the diligence of Council members and Trustees ensuring Trinity remains true to its aims	30	The name of the LORD is a strong fortress; the godly run to him and are safe. Proverbs 18:10 NLT
