PRAYER NOTES FROM TRINITY

Hi! I'm Siena Smith and I'm studying the Graduate Diploma of Divinity. I attend Unichurch at St Matthew's Anglican in Shenton Park with my husband, Lawson, and have been part of this church family since 2013. Growing up, I tried to be acceptable to God and others, but my life was marked by hypocrisy and shame. God transformed me through 1 Peter 3:18, showing me that Christ died as my substitute—the righteous for the unrighteous—to bring me to God. Now, I live in the freedom of knowing that God sees me through Christ's blood, not my sin; his grace continues to transform me. I began studying at Trinity during an MTS apprenticeship, eager to have my character and convictions shaped for God's purposes. Studying Scripture deepens my appreciation for God's Word. Prayers at the start of lectures and exams have been an encouragement, and I'm grateful for my lecturers' commitment to prayer. Please pray for persistence in seeking God's truth, and for my husband, Lawson, as he considers full-time ministry.
