PRAYER NOTES FROM TRINITY

Thom Bull, Lecturer in Theology

Thom is married to Mary Jane, and they have four children – Nicholas, Lucy, Timothy, and James. They attend St Alban's Anglican Church in Highgate. Thom was initially drawn to Christianity as a teenager and was baptised when he was 15, but he didn't really grasp the gospel and soon walked away to explore other religions and philosophies. When he was at university God put a number of Christian friends into his life who spoke to him about Christ, and through much resistance and via a circuitous route (including some time in an Ashram in India – but that's another story) he came to recognise Jesus for who he truly is, and his deep need for salvation. Thom eventually headed towards vocational ministry, and trained at Trinity and served in church and school ministry for 6 years before coming back to TTC as a lecturer, where he teaches theology, Reformation history, and ethics. Please pray that Thom's devotion to Jesus would deepen day by day, and that he would make it his aim to please Christ in every part of his life.
